ANOTHER DECISION HANDED DOWN IN ALEXANDER CASE

In the United States District Court at Cincinnati, Judge Peck handed down a decision involving points of material interest at issue in the case of the George Alexander & Co., State Bank, of Paris.

George C. Speer, then State Banking Commissioner of Kentucky, brought suit against the Fifth-Third National Bank, of Cincinnati, to recover approximately the sum of $35,000, alleged to have been realized by the Fifth-Third bank on collateral given to it as security for loans made to the Alexander bank, alleging that the Paris bank had no power under its charter to borrow in excess of $10,000.

The Banking Commissioner asked for an order of Court striking from the files the answers of the Fifth-Third National Bank. Judge Peck's decision for the greater part sustains the defense set up by the bank and denied the motion.

In connection with the Banking Commissioner's objection to the defense of the bank that he has suits pending against the former directors of the Alexander bank for recovery of monies alleged to be due depositors and other creditors of the bank, and that the directors are good for all the valid claims of the bank, Judge Peck holds that it is not well taken, and that this is a valid defense. The Court stated in this connection that if the defendant Fifth-Third National Bank is liable at all, it is to the unsatisfied creditors and depositors after the Banking Commissioner has exhausted such courses in action as were enforceable by the corporation itself.

BOURBON CIRCUIT COURT

The March term of Bourbon Circuit Court convened yesterday with Circuit Judge Robert L. Stout on the bench, and Commonwealth's Attorney Victor Bradley at his post.

The Grand Jury was impaneled and sworn in. The jury is composed of the following: Charles C. Clarke, foreman; M. J. Lavin, Ray Burris, B. M. Renick, Ayelette Buckner, Wm. F. Saunders, Henry S. May, Redmon Talbott, R. L. Wilson, Jas. L. Dodge, J. Frank Clay and Samuel Clay.

Judge Stout delivered the usual charge to the members of the Grand Jury, admonishing them to be faithful and diligent in the discharge of their duties, and to give special attention to ferreting out cases of violation of the gaming and local option laws.

During the motion hour a number of pleadings were filed. The ordinary appearance docket was called for trial. The Court adjourned at noon until nine o'clock this morning.

PROGRESSIVE CLUB MOVEMENT INAUGURATED HERE.

A movement inaugurated by the Paris Literary Club to co-ordinate the scattered and divided efforts of club women in this city and county has been favorably launched here. The Literary Club, which has thrived for more than a score of years, has issued a request to the members of the other clubs to join in the development of one organization, to be known as the Bourbon County Woman's Club. The Progressive Culture Club of Paris, is almost as old an organization as the Paris Literary Club, with which it has worked unostentatiously for promoting and furthering the cultured and moral life of the community.

The proposed plans for the consolidation of the clubs are not yet fully matured, but those who are leading in the progressive step advocate four departments of work—civics, current events, art and music, with a directing chairman for each. The present organizations of Bourbon county women affiliated with the State Federation of Clubs are the Paris Literary Club, Mrs. W. G. Talbott, president; The Progressive Culture Club, Mrs. George W. Stuart, president; The Bourbon County Health and Welfare League, Mrs. James McClure, president; School Improvement League, The Twentieth Century Club, of Millersburg, Mrs. J. Elgin Poole, president; and the North Middletown Woman's Club, Mrs. Allie Smith Dickson, president.

WHY NOT A CLEAN-UP CLUB?

Spring will be with us again very shortly now, and the question of community beauty and sanitation will come to the fore.

What's the matter with having a "Clean-Up" Club in this town? Why can't we have an organization of public spirited men and women whose business it would be to encourage the cleaning up and beautifying of the town?

Such an organization would accomplish wonders in a short space of time. We haven't a citizen who wouldn't heartily co-operate in such a movement; and many, once it was under way, would go to great lengths to outdo others and carry off the prize.

And a prize, we would suggest, should be given not for the best place, but for the one showing the greatest improvement.

Sanitation is necessary to health, and we can't have sanitation without cleanliness. And cleanliness can be produced only through the systematic co-operation of the entire community.

We believe such a movement would prove popular in Paris. Certainly its benefits would be many and far reaching.

REAL ESTATE TRANSACTIONS

E. C. Sanders purchased of Harry Baldwin, the McCarthy property located on Williams street, for $2,500.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Nagle have sold their 1-story frame cottage located on Vine street, to Elbert Milton, of Paris, for $1,300.

Mrs. J. T. Martin and other heirs of the late Richard J. Brown, sold the cottage located at the corner of Pleasant and Eleventh streets, to Jos. R. Farmer, for $4,000.

Wm. L. Brannock, of near Paris, recently purchased of T. F. Brannock, a small farm of fifty acres, located on the Paris and Ruddles Mills pike, near Paris, for $10,000.

Sam Jones sold his property in Fairview Addition, in North Middletown, to Carlton Wells, who has moved to the place. Mr. Jones purchased the property of T. H. See, on College street, Mr. See moving to the Peters property on Levy street.

John McLain, of near Paris, purchased Friday, of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Harper, for investment purposes, two frame cottages located in Bourbon Heights Addition to Paris, for $3,000. The sale was made through the Bishop & Flora real estate agency of Paris.

The Bishop & Flora real estate agency sold recently for Miss Imogene Redmon frame cottage located in Thornton Division, this city, to Jos. Thorn, of Nicholas county, for $2,000. Mr. Flora recently sold two cottages located on South Clifton avenue.

Harry L. Mitchell sold Saturday for Homer Soard a five-acre tract of land lying on the Lexington pike, at the intersection of the Bethlehem pike, to F. P. Bramel, for $4,500. On the same day Mr. Mitchell sold for T. E. Waterfield a house and lot located on Elizabeth street, in White Addition, to J. E. Minogue, for a private price.

The G. O. Tuck Co. recently transferred their large redrying plant on Twentieth street, in the old Fair Grounds Addition to Paris, to the International Planters' Association, of New York, for $11,000. It is said that the transfer will make no change in the operation of the Paris plant, which will continue under the control of the Tuck Co.

Through the Paris Realty Co., William S. Dale sold Saturday to George Harper, of Virginia avenue, his home on Henderson street at a private price. On the same day the real estate firm of Bishop & Flora sold for Stuart & O'Brien a lot on Mt. Airy avenue to Robert Johnson, for $1,600. Mr. Johnson will erect a nice home on the lot in the early spring.

The J. W. Estes farm of seventy-three acres, located on the Clintonville pike, near Paris, and known as part of the Albert S. Thompson farm, has been sold through the Harris, Speakes & Harris real estate agency of Paris, to McManus & Vaughn, of Fayette county, for $285 per acre. The same farm sold to Mrs. Mary Reese, for $2,400, a cottage located on Nineteenth street, belonging to Thos. F. Brannan, of Lexington.

J. N. Crockett purchased of Riley Bradburn two lots in the Fairview Addition to North Middletown, and will erect a residence on one of them at once. Dr. L. R. Henry, who recently purchased part of the Robinson farm on the Mt. Sterling pike, near North Middletown, will erect a residence on the place. N. B. Wiley, of the same vicinity, has rented and moved to the farm near North Middletown recently sold to C. M. Boardman by Russell Boardman.

Mrs. John J. McClintock, sold last week to the Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co., two acres of land in the old Fair Grounds Addition to Paris, adjoining the site of the Company's large redrying plant, for $8,000. The property fronts on the Louisville & Nashville railroad. North Clifton avenue is to be extended through this property to intersect with a street in front of the big redrying plant in the Barnes Addition. It is stated that the Company is arranging for extensive additions and improvements in Paris and that a large warehouse for the storage of tobacco will be erected on the new purchase in the early summer.

WHY A BALL CURVES

There are many scientific explanations to account for the curve of a baseball. It is generally agreed that the rotary motion of the ball after it leaves the pitcher's hand so affects the resistance of the air that it is deflected from its original course. A fascinating experiment may be made by spinning a marble in water. The resistance of the water being much greater than that of the air, the effect is exaggerated. The marble should be dropped in water two feet or more deep. By spinning it fast or slow and in various directions the curve of the most skillful pitcher can be reproduced.

PUBLIC SALES.

Auctioneer Speakes also conducted the public sale of livestock, etc., for James L. Shanks, on the premises, in East Paris. One pair of three-year-old mules sold for $400; one cow for $190; one bay mare, $145; one pony, $82.50; chickens, $1.45 each.

Everything offered at the public sale of livestock, etc., belonging to Charles A. Webber, and conducted by Auctioneer George D. Speakes, on the premises, near Paris, brought good prices. Heifers sold for $35 to $75; cows, $100 to $165; sows, $35 to $45; sows and pigs, $35; shoats, $9 to $14; chickens, $1.45 to $2. A house and lot, opposite the Webber place, belonging to the Kenney heirs, was sold at the same time, for $2,725.

Auctioneer George D. Speakes makes the following report of the sale of livestock, crops, farming implements, etc., belonging to Bruce Hannon, conducted by him on the premises near Little Rock: Horses sold for $120 to $140 a head; cows, $85 to $110 a head; corn $10 to $10.80 per barrel; baled hay, $40 a ton; chickens, $1 to $1.50 each; gobblers, $8.50 each; country bacon, forty-cent cents a pound; household effects and farming implements sold at good figures.

BASKET BALL.

The Danville Messenger says: "The Kentucky Girls' Interscholastic Basketball Tournament will take place in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium at Paris, on Friday and Saturday, March 12 and 13. Teams of the high schools in Central Kentucky, including Danville, have been invited to take part, and local fans would like to see a local five win the State honors."

The basketball tournament, which is to decide the champion Girls' High School team of Kentucky for this year, will be held in Paris, March 12th and 13th, at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium.

The visiting teams will arrive sometime Friday forenoon, and at 2:30 of that day, will draw for places. More contesting teams are expected to take part in this tournament than last year. The tournament, which promises to be a highly successful athletic event, is to be held under the auspices of the Athletic Association of the Paris High School, and at the direction of Miss Adrienne Ennis, Physical director for girls at the city school. Much interest is being shown by the people of this city in the outcome of the tournament, and especially appreciated is the willingness with which they have offered the hospitality of their homes to the girls of the visiting teams. Miss Sarah Blanding, of State University, is to be official referee. The schools invited to attend the tournament are as follows: Lexington High, Winchester City School, Clark County High, Richmond High, Frankfort High, Danville High, Mt. Sterling High, Maysville High, Georgetown High, Cynthiana High, Nicholasville K. C. W. Prep. Team.

The Paris and Cynthiana High School teams played a double-header game on the Cynthiana floor Friday night, resulting in defeat for the Paris girls' team by a score of 20 to 13. The girls were requested to play under rules governing the boys' games, with which they were not familiar. To this they ascribe the victory of the Harrison school girls.

The boys' game resulted in a victory for the Paris boys, the final score standing 31 to 11. A large crowd of Paris "rooters" accompanied the local teams and did their best to cheer their favorites on to victory.

NOTED JAIL-BREAKER IS WELL-KNOWN HERE.

A few days ago the daily papers carried a story detailing the marvellous escapes from prisons and jails of Roy Dickerson, a vaudeville actor, who has made himself famous in that line. Dickerson's latest escape was effected from the jail in Los Angeles, California, where he had been confined on the charge of robbing a bank at Phoenix, Arizona.

Several years ago, Dickerson, with his wife, was playing the circuits with a vaudeville sketch under the name of the Mysterious Dickersons. They played an engagement in Paris, where they gave some clever performances. Dickerson was locked up in the big vault in the County Clerk's office, under the watchful eyes of a group of Paris newspaper men and county officials. Although he was securely handcuffed and blindfolded he succeeded in effecting his release from the vault in less than three minutes after the doors had been locked on him. He also succeeded in unlocking a Government lock on one of warehouses at the Walsh Distillery (now the Paris Distilling Co.) using nothing but three toothpicks, and accomplishing the feat in about two minutes while an audience of about fifty people gazed with astonishment. He also performed other puzzling and difficult feats along the Houdini line, releasing himself from the most modern handcuffs, etc. His wife told the newspaper men in Los Angeles that the escape from the Los Angeles jail was the one hundred and eighth escape he had made.

THE HOSPITAL FUND.

A visitor in Paris, Sunday, remarked to THE NEWS man, in speaking of the Massie Hospital Fund: "Paris people ought to see that this campaign is put over in a satisfactory manner, for in that institution they certainly have something to be proud of. We have one in our town, and we are just as proud of it as a boy is of his new top. We don't propose to let the institution go begging for anything, either. All they have to do is to state their desires, and our business men see that they are granted."

Does that kind of spirit animate the people of Bourbon county? We are sure everyone is proud of the Massie Memorial Hospital, for it is universally conceded to be one of the best in the State. The Hospital is making an effort to raise the sum of $20,000, for needed improvements and it is imperative that the people of this city and county see that it is raised. The amount is near the goal, but many have not yet contributed who can do so. Let some public-spirited man imitate the example of the Youngstown, Ohio, attorney, who provided in his will that the sum of $6,000, half the income on a building block valued at $100,000, owned by him, should go to the Hospital, in that city. But don't wait until your death has deprived the community of a good citizen to make your contribution to the Massie Memorial Hospital fund. Come in now, and do it gracefully. Any bank in the city will gladly receive and credit your subscription.

DERSON MUSICAL FIVE TO DELIGHT WINCHESTER

The Derson Musical Five, who delighted Paris theatre-goers with their excellent music some weeks ago, have just concluded a four-week engagement at the Richmond movie houses. They will appear this week in Winchester, where they will play several weeks. The members of this organization made many warm friends during their stay here, who will welcome a return engagement of this splendid musical organization.

PROHIBITION ENFORCEMENT BILL PASSED IN SENATE

A prohibition enforcement measure modeled on the Volstead national law was passed by the Kentucky Senate with only six votes against it. Those opposing were Senators Branstetter, Burton, Early, Metzger, Perry and Simmons.

This virtually marks an end of a fight which has been carried on in Kentucky for years. The large majorities by which both Houses and Senate passed the bill indicates how changed are conditions from those stormy days when Kentucky Legislators were divided into bitterly hostile camps of "wets" and "drys" and when every vote was influenced by the antagonistic sentiments.

The bill prohibits manufacture, sale or transportation of any beverage containing more than one-half of one per cent. of alcohol, except for medicinal, sacramental, mechanical or scientific purposes. Not more than one pint of whisky in ten days may be prescribed by a physician or sold by a druggist to one consumer. Excepted from provisions of the law are such preparations containing alcohol as standard medical remedies, patent medicines, toilet preparations, flavoring extracts, etc., which are unfit for beverage purposes. Punishments for violating the law include a fine of $50 to $300 and imprisonment from 30 to 60 days for subsequent offenses. Buildings or any other property used in violation of the law may be declared a nuisance and the property confiscated.

BRYAN WILL SPEAK TO ASSEMBLY "IF POSSIBLE."

Responding to the Swinford resolution adopted by the General Assembly last week, inviting William J. Bryan to address the legislators in joint session, the Nebraskan sent the following wire from Miami, Florida:

"Profoundly appreciate honor done me by Legislature. I shall be pleased to accept if possible, but am very much afraid that I cannot reach Frankfort before adjournment. Shall wire you later if I find I can come."

WARNING TO SPACE GRAFTERS

So far as "space grafting" is concerned THE NEWS is pleased to announce that its columns are no longer to be used as a dumping-ground for the stuff that is being sent to all the papers in the country. Our space is the one thing we have to sell, and we can see no more reason for giving it away than for the merchant to give away his goods. In one day's mail recently we received nine letters, mostly from Government activities, asking for space that had it been given, would have amounted at our regular advertising rates, to about $200.

During the war THE NEWS and all other patriotic newspapers gave columns to help the Government win the war, and none regret it. But now, the Government's business is purely business, and there is no reason why it should not pay for its advertising. If the sale of Thrift Stamps is Government business, why not let them pay for the advertising? Every newspaper worth while heartily supports everything good for the country, and everyone with an ounce of brains will decide for himself how it shall do that.

What THE NEWS believes to be information for its readers it will publish, and will, editorially, boost such things as it believes will help the country, but it draws the line at being made a free dumping ground for the "space grafters." Regular rates will be demanded for all advertising, and, unless the promise to pay is attached it will go to the waste basket. This applies as well to private concerns as to the Government. Our space is our merchandise, and we can see no good reason why we should be called upon to give it away. This is a plainly worded warning to the "space grafters" and we hope those who read it will take heed and govern themselves accordingly.

SCHOOL CHILDREN TO GIVE WAR MEMORIAL TO FRANCE

School children of Kentucky will be asked to contribute to "America's Gift to France," which will take the form of an heroic statue designed by Frederick McMonnies, American sculptor. It will be placed in a position overlooking the Marne River near the village of Meaux, where the first German advance on Paris was stopped on September 6, 1914, less than twenty miles from Paris.

The gift to France will cost $250,000, about the same as the cost of the Statue of Liberty, and will be presented to France by the school children of America.

The campaign in Kentucky to raise the fund will be conducted by Peter Lee Atherton, Louisville, and Superintendent of Public Instruction George Colvin, the latter having sent letters to all county and city school superintendents outlining the plan of the campaign.

The idea of a memorial gift from America, to demonstrate the victory of the Marne, originated with a group of Americans who have formed a national committee, with Thos. W. Lamont chairman, and Myron T. Herrick, former ambassador to France, as chairman of the executive committee.

Interest in the gift to France will be stimulated by a national prize contest.

A FUTURE IN TREES

A generation ago the center of the great lumber region lay very near the Atlantic coast, and the broad land was all but covered with virgin forests. Wood of all kinds has been used up so much faster than it grows that to-day the center of our lumber region is rapidly approaching the Pacific coast. The tree is one of the greatest sources of wealth in the land, and great efforts are being made to-day before it is too late to preserve it. Many thousands of acres all over the country are planted with trees like any other crop.

TWENTY YEARS AGO.

In a series of little paragraphs which THE NEWS man was reading a short time ago, under the heading of "Twenty Years Ago," we came across one which read as follows: "Running a country newspaper in Paris was not a business." That paragraph was certainly right. But the war has shown the editors and owners of country newspapers that their business is their business after all, and must be run on business principles.

The good old days when an editor could loaf around with a pipe in his mouth, and accept garden truck and such like on subscription accounts are no more. During the war the value of the paper to the community and to the country at large was clearly demonstrated. His full share of the burden of helping to win the war fell on the country editor and he bore it bravely. Here and there a weekly paper has "gone to the wall," but largely they have met all conditions and have given splendid service to home and country.

And out of it all has come great good for the paper because it has demonstrated beyond any question that advertising pays. The Government has learned it in the Liberty Loan drives. The postmaster has been convinced by the demand for War Savings Stamps. The local Red Cross has discovered it through the responses made to their appeals through the press. The committees in charge of the various drives for war activities will admit their labors were greatly lessened by the publicity given to their campaigns in the home papers.

During all these demands for free publicity the editors gave of their space, which, after all, is their sole stock in trade. Expenses went up. The cost of material and labor advanced, but the Government continued to demand the support of the country newspapers. Munition manufacturers, dealers in supplies for the army and navy, even laborers on Government work were all paid and paid well, but the loyal home newspaper trudged on under the added load without a whimper or a cry of complaint.

Now the war has been won and the country newspaper owner has the satisfaction of knowing that he did his bit to the limit. But he has learned that running his paper is a business, and hereafter he will demand the treatment accorded to other business men. He has a right to it. In his plant he has an investment equal to the average stock of merchandise carried in any store in his town. He must meet his bills on much shorter time than in the days before the war, and he is entitled to the cash discount as well as the grocer, the druggist or any other man in business.

The postoffice department taught him a valuable lesson when it demanded that all unpaid subscriptions must be stopped. The country editor has been too easy-going. He has permitted himself to be imposed on too long. In order to exist to-day he must do business as other men do business, and the town that wants a newspaper must treat that newspaper as they do the bank or the telephone companies.

That paragraph was right. "Twenty years ago running a newspaper in Paris was not a business," so to-morrow. The country editor wore patches on the seat of his trousers and was expected to live on free doing. It is different to-day and it is going to be even more and that was why the country editor has a serious duty to perform, and he succeeds in doing it. Therefore, he is entitled to the respect and support of the community.

DAILY RESUMES PUBLICATION.

The Winchester Daily Democrat has resumed publication, after a temporary suspension, due to the illness from influenza, of the editor, Charles B. Nelson. At the time Mr. Nelson was filling the place of linotype operator, the regular operator being ill of influenza, and he was the only man on the force who was familiar with the operation of the Duplex press, recently installed. No operators could be obtained anywhere, for love or money, so the paper was forced to suspend publication until Mr. Nelson recovered. All the members of his family were at one time ill of the influenza. Mrs. Nelson, who had devoted her attention to the other stricken members of the family, became a victim of the disease, but is now on the road to recovery.

GOOD HEALTH LIFE'S GREATEST BLESSING

Happiness and Success Within Easy Reach of Red-Blooded Men and Women.

Anemic Condition Unnecessary.

Pepto-Mangan Makes Rich, Red
Blood—Builds Up Pale, Thin
Anemic Men and Women

Good health is the most important asset of life. Without a vigorous, strong body and a keen, clear mind, true happiness and enjoyment are impossible.

And yet so many women, and men, too, whose misfortune it is to be pale, thin and anemic, hopelessly accept this condition in the belief that robust health and real happiness are not for them.

Thousands of men and women have been restored to vigorous health and lasting happiness by Gude's Pepto-Mangan. This beneficial blood tonic contains the very properties so vitally needed to improve the blood. Pepto-Mangan, if taken for a few weeks, will enrich the blood and create thousands of the tiny red blood cells that are so necessary to carry nourishment and strength to every part of the body.

Pepto-Mangan is safe, beneficial, and pleasant to the taste. For convenience it is prepared in liquid and tablet form, both possessing exactly the same medicinal properties.

Be sure to ask your druggist for "Gude's" when you order Pepto-Mangan. "Gude's" is the genuine Pepto-Mangan. Look for the name "Gude's" on the package.

FAMOUS STALLION TO GO IN BIG SALE.

Peter Billikin, 2:05 3/4, the son of Peter the Great and Baron Lassie, also dam of Lady Wanetak (2) 2:10 and granddam of Great Barion 2:09 3/4, property of Warren Bacon, formerly of Paris, will go to the Blue Ribbon sale at Madison Square Garden, March 15. He has been raced in high class fashion since his 3-year-old form, starting his turf career at two, when he was given a time record of 2:28 1/4. At four he was not raced, but has been raced each year since, last year being better than ever before and reducing his mile track record to 2:05 1/4, and winning a four-hundred race over a half mile track in which he trotted in 2:09 1/4, the race breaking the record of four heats over a half mile track.

Some folks would be glad to buy "5 per cent." beer, even if it were 10 cents per.

What's Your Farm Worth?

What did your tobacco crop bring you? Do you know that the demand for export and the increased consumption of "Bright Leaf" forced unusually high prices and really FORCED the market above what it would have been under normal export and ordinary increase? You know that every abnormal market must react. Well that's history and part of it caused by the late war, but it all has to do with our question, "WHAT'S YOUR FARM WORTH?" If tobacco prices hold up, farm lands in Kentucky will continue to hold up. If the bright leaf market is lost by the destruction of cigarettes, farm lands will go down with falling prices. One farmer was bemoaning the increase in his land tax. He seemed to forget that land he bought for $125.00 an acre now commands $450.00. We can't keep it all. Even Uncle Sam wants his share. So if our land is valued at two or three times what we paid for it, we must pay higher taxes. That is settled. Now what will your farm land be worth if you cannot raise tobacco? Some folks are mighty busy already against tobacco, and we suggest that if you do not know what is going on, that you write the ALLIED TOBACCO LEAGUE OF AMERICA, Pickering Building, Cincinnati, O. If your farm is worth it—better keep posted anyway. Are you interested enough to write for information on "How To Keep Farm Land Producing Profits?" Be informed and then you will know and appreciate what is being done to conserve your farm investment. (2-4)

FARMERS SUPPLY CO.

We Have on Hand the Largest Stock of Goods that is Used By the Farmer in Central Kentucky

We are Agents For

Oliver Chilled Plows and Cultivators, Manure Spreaders and Black Hawk Corn Planters

Buy Genuine Oliver Plow Parts

The Oliver Chilled Plow Works will under no condition be responsible for the work of a plow equipped with imitation shares.

This refers to plow points, mouldboards, landsides, standards, and other parts that go to make up an Oliver plow made by the Oliver Chilled Plow Works, South Bend, Indiana.

There is a vast difference between the genuine and imitation parts. We cite plow points as one example.

The reason why the Oliver Chilled Plow Works do not polish their plow points like a mirror is because the point does not need polishing. The rough surface is the hardest part of the point, making it wear longer than it would if this were polished away.

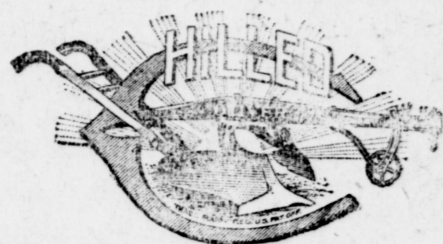

Olivers spend their money to make the points do the business and not for appearances.

Bear in mind that you are getting better wear and more service for your money in genuine Oliver points.

Genuine Oliver repair parts fit better, wear longer, make the plow run easier and do a better job of plowing.

When you buy Oliver repair parts, insist upon seeing the name "Oliver" and this trade mark cast in every piece you buy.

A WORTHY MEASURE.

The Independent wishes to go on record as favoring House Bill No. 395, introduced by Hon. Lee Stewart, of Knott county, and its companion bill in the Senate, known as Senate Bill No. 247, introduced by Senator Newton Bright, of Henry County. These bills aim at taking care of the work of the Moonlight Schools, which have been so successfully carried on by the Illiteracy Commission under the direction of Mrs. Cora Wilson Stewart for the past several years. The Illiteracy Commission expires by limitation July 1st. The Commission has been able to accomplish a wonderful work in its effort to redeem Kentucky from illiteracy. Through the splendid volunteer work of the State, about 130,000 of Kentucky's illiterates have been taught to read and write, leaving something like 70,000 to be taught. It is highly important that this work be carried on. The Legislature should consider this matter seriously and at once. There ought not to be any excuse, accepted from the lawmakers if they fail to appropriate enough money to carry on this great work.

The bills referred to will give $50,000.00 additional to what the Commission has been spending and this amount is for the public school teachers. It comes out of the general expenditure fund and thus augments the educational funds of the State just that much.

Every person knows that the salaries of the school teachers of this State ought to be increased. It is also a rank injustice to ask these teachers to conduct a night school for nothing. This new law provides that the teachers who shall conduct night schools shall be paid a nominal fee for this work.

These bills ought to be enacted into law and we believe they will be when the proper information is put before the lawmakers of the State.

—Editorial From the Ashland Daily Independent.

BOURBON FISCAL COURT

With the exception of auditing a number of claims against the county there was very little to do at the recent meeting of the Bourbon Fiscal Court. The report of County Engineer Ben F. Bedford for the preceding month was read and adopted. Following this there was a general discussion of the road building program for the coming spring and summer, work on which is expected to begin the latter part of this month.

Improvements contemplated in the road building department by the Fiscal Court will approximate $1,800,000. The rebuilding of the main thoroughfares of the county will mark a new era in the history of Bourbon county roads. At the conclusion of the work, which it is estimated, will require five years, all roads leading to county seats in adjoining counties will be surfaced in hard road material and all the cross roads of the county rebuilt with rolled macadam.

KENTUCKY CROP ESTIMATES.

Kentucky farmers this year have on hand livestock worth approximately $165,017,000, compared to $178,439,000 worth of stock on farms in the State last year. There is only a very slight decrease in the total number of all classes of farm animals as a whole, but the lower prices, compared to a year ago, make the total value approximately seven and a half per cent less than in 1919.

Horses number approximately 429,000, mules 231,000, milk cows 457,000, other cattle 580,000, sheep 1,236,000, and swine 1,681,000. Compared to 1919, this is approximately a decrease of 2 per cent in horses, no change in number of mule, 1 per cent increase in number of milk cows, 5 per cent decrease in other cattle, 3 per cent decrease in number of sheep and 5 per cent decrease in number of swine.

Milk cows are the only class of livestock averaging higher in value than last year, $73.00 in 1920, compared to $72.00 in 1919. Horses average $101.00, compared to $104.00 a year ago, and mules were only about the same average price as a year ago, until the very recent activity sent prices up a little, even that not affecting the average for all ages much, as many farmers complain of unreasonably low prices on yearling mules, which helps to reduce the average of mule prices. The State's average price on mules (all ages) this year is about $126.00 as compared to $127.00 last year. The value of the average hog in Kentucky shows a drop from $16.00 last year to $13.00 this year, sheep from $13.10 to $10.90 this year, and cattle other than milk cows show a small decrease in average value, from $42.50 last year to $41.20 this year.

ATTENTION, TOBACCO GROWERS!

POTASH is the thing that tobacco needs for rapid growth and quality. Our stocks of SWIFT'S BLOOD AND BONE FERTILIZER have just arrived. BOURBON REPUBLICAN SEES FIRST STATE CONVENTION

"An interested spectator at the convention was W. A. Thomson, the new chairman of the Bourbon county committee. It was Mr. Thomson's first convention, as he has been too busy with other matters to pay much attention to politics. Now he says he will just dabble enough in party affairs to give him recreation."

SLIGHT AUTO ACCIDENT

While edging to Paris in his auto yesterday morning from Shawhan, Howard Ritchie met with a slight accident in which his machine was damaged by crashing into a telephone pole.

In endeavoring to avoid running over a dog that had run across the pike in front of his machine, Mr. Ritchie swerved the car to one side of the road. The machine skidded on the smooth surface, colliding with a telephone pole, and damaging the car considerably. Mr. Ritchie and the dog escaped unhurt.

SEVERE WINTER WEATHER

So far the month of March is playing severe winter weather as trumps in the game of life, and helping along the high cost of living. With the mercury hugging the basement apartment in the thermometer, keen, cutting, ice-cold winds and snow flurries every hour, almost, the past three days have been more like real winter than the beginning of spring.

Weather predictions for this week, as sent out from the Weather Bureau at Washington, are as follows: Ohio Valley—Low temperature early in the week, and probably slightly below normal as a rule; thereafter generally fair.

MRS. A. H. MOREHEAD HONORED

Mrs. Albert H. Morehead, formerly of Paris, supervisor of the penny lunches in the Lexington public schools, has been officially appointed as State Chairman to organize the women of Kentucky into a working unit for the anti-high cost of living campaign being waged by the Department of Justice.

The appointment was made last week by Miss Edith Strauss, head of the woman's division of the Department of Justice, and Mrs. Morehead has accepted.

The honor came to Mrs. Morehead as a result of the general conference of Kentucky women representing various women's organizations of the State, which was held recently in Louisville.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Comings and Goings of Our People Here, There and Elsewhere.

—Nathan Linville has returned from a visit to relatives in Carlisle.

—T. C. Lenihan, of Lexington, made his usual trip to Paris, Sunday, "renewing acquaintances."

—Miss Sunshine Cook, of Lexington, was a week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Bayless, in this city.

—Mrs. Sydney Bryan has returned from Southern California, where she spent the winter with relatives.

—Mrs. James W. Ferguson has returned to her home in Gallon, Alabama, after a visit to relatives in Fayette and Bourbon counties.

—Mr. and Mrs. Willis Rye and son, Leonard, have returned to their home in Winchester, after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. James Rye, in this city.

—Mrs. James W. Thompson will entertain the members of her bridge club this afternoon at her country home on the Lexington pike, near Paris.

—Mr. Sterling Sentinel-Democrat: "Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Jones have moved to their farm, which they recently purchased near Plum Lick, Bourbon county."

—Mrs. James L. Day is a patient at the Massie Memorial Hospital, suffering with influenza and bronchitis. Mr. Day is just recovering from an attack of the same disease.

—Mrs. E. M. Dickson has returned from a visit to her sister, Mrs. Jos. Head, in Richmond. Mrs. Head was a guest the past week of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Dickson, in this city.

—Mrs. James H. Thompson, of Paris, and Mrs. Abram Adams, of Frankfort, will entertain Thursday with a luncheon bridge at the home of the latter, 318 Shelby street, in Frankfort.

—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Veach and children, who moved to Montana about three years ago, are visiting Mrs. Veach's father, Joseph Brown, in North Middletown. They will probably locate in Kentucky.

—Maj. Durand Whipple returned Saturday from a visit to relatives in Little Rock, Ark., and is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Dickson, on Stoner avenue, where Mrs. Whipple and sons spent the winter.

—Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. White have moved from Paris to Lexington to reside in the future. Mr. and Mrs. James Woodford, who purchased Mr. White's home on Higgins avenue, have moved to it from their country home.

—Mr. and Mrs. Newton Bishop and family have moved from Woodford county to the Millet farm, on the Jackstown pike, near Paris, which Mr. Bishop recently purchased.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Alverson, who formerly owned the place, have moved to their cottage on Cypress street.

—Strother D. Mitchell, formerly of North Middletown, has returned from Kansas, where he has resided for several years. Mrs. Mitchell preceded him several days ago, and has been a guest at the home of Dr. and Mrs. R. D. Weaver, in North Middletown. Mr. Mitchell is having his farm residence on the Lexington and Versailles pike overhauled, and will move there soon.

—The Shelby Record has the following social notes of new comers to Paris: "William McCann, who has been in business here for a number of years, has sold his implement store and residence property to W. H. Jones & Son, of Henry county. Accompanied by Mrs. McCann and their three sons, he has gone to Paris to reside."

—H. P. Perry, for the last twenty-five years one of the leading merchants, will leave soon with his wife and daughter, for Paris, to make their future home.

—Mr. Perry sold his mercantile business early in the new year to Arthur Graves, who died two weeks ago of pneumonia.

—In a letter from Daytona Beach, Fla., written at Seaside Inn on the ocean front, where Mr. J. P. Glenn is the owner and proprietor, is the following mention of Kentuckians spending the season in Florida: "Mrs. Arthur Hancock and daughter, Nancy May, of Paris, Ky., have been here two weeks. She had as her guest Mrs. E. F. Clay, Misses Mary Clay, Sallie Lockhart and Kate Alexander. They motored over from Eustis for the day."

—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Simms and Miss Lucy Simms are with Miss Fullerton on Halifax avenue. They came to Florida after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Simms, in Texas.

—The Frankfort State Journal says: "Mr. and Mrs. Samuel J. Shackleford, were the host and hostess at a dinner party in honor of Representative James H. Thompson and Mrs. Thompson, of Paris. The guests, who were seated at a round table, faced each other across an effective arrangement of jonquils and hyacinths embedded in the mistletoe of brown tulle bows. The silver candlesticks held yellow tapers and other table appointments carried out the decorative idea. Covers were laid for Representative and Mrs. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Goodpaster, Judge and Mrs. W. Rogers Clay, Mr. and Mrs. Graham Vreeland, Mrs. P. J. Riley, of Mt. Sterling, Senator Charles M. Harris, Senator Jay Harlan, Speaker Joe Bosworth and the host and hostess."

—Georgetown correspondent of the Lexington Herald: "Mr. and Mrs. William Kenney Ferguson, who will leave soon for Paris, where they will take up their residence, were guests at a dinner bridge given by Mr. and Mrs. Porter H. Nunnally. Mrs. Victor A. Bradley won a pair of silk hose, Ras Ware, Jr., a pair of silk socks, and James Leslie Carrick two decks of fancy cards. Mrs. Ferguson was presented with a set of hand-made tea napkins. The guests were Messrs. and Mesdames Robert Taylor, Hinton, Kenney Ferguson, Johnson Aske, James L. Carrick, Herndon Waller, Charles Penoch Moriarty, of Grand Rapids, Mich.; Ras Ware, Buford Hall, Victor E. Bradley, Lewis Finley, Mrs. James Craig Bradley, Miss Martha

Green, and Jefferson Davis Grover and Ben A. Lair."

—Mayor E. B. January and Thos. Chipley were in Maysville, Friday, on a business mission.

—Mr. and Mrs. James Duncan Bell have returned from a pleasant trip to points in Florida.

—Y. H. Harrison, of the L. & N., has returned from a visit to his mother, in Greenville, S. C.

—Mr. and Mrs. Will G. McClintock have returned from a visit to friends and relatives in St. Louis, Mo.

—Mrs. Martin O'Neal and daughter, have returned from a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Victor Martin, in Carlisle.

—Mr. and Mrs. McKinley Owen have returned to their home in Winchester after a visit to relatives in Paris.

—Mrs. George Snapp has returned to her home in Pigsbaw, Ky., after a visit to her cousin, Mrs. John H. Doty, in this city.

—Mrs. Harry King, who has been under treatment at the Petree Sanitarium, in this city, has returned to her home in Carlisle.

—Mrs. J. O. Marshall was hostess to the members of the Friday Bridge Club at her home on Second street, Friday afternoon.

—Mr. and Mrs. Boone Ingels, Miss Marylou Ingels, of Carlisle, attended the funeral and burial of Mrs. Ben Ingels, in this city last week.

—Mrs. Albert Kirtley and daughter, Miss Mildred Kirtley, have returned to their home in Frankfort, after a visit to Mrs. Hiram S. Redmon.

—Clarence Thomas, who has been very ill of influenza for several weeks, was able to be at his post of duty yesterday in the Peoples' Deposit Bank.

—Mrs. Kate Wilson has returned to her home on Mt. Airy from the Mayo Bros. Hospital, in Rochester, Minn., where she recently underwent a successful surgical operation.

—Miss Stella Stephens, of the Paris High School faculty, was called to Mt. Sterling, Sunday, by the death of her grandfather, J. Q. Stephens. Mr. Stephens was one of the oldest business men in Mt. Sterling.

—Mrs. A. C. Anderson and two daughters, of Louisville, and Scott Gilbert, of Paris Island, S. C., have returned to their respective homes after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Hukill, in this city.

—Miss Virginia Shanklin, of Millersburg, will take a prominent part in the program to be rendered Wednesday evening, March 10, by the pupils of Hans Schroeder, in a song recital at the College of Music, in Cincinnati. Miss Shanklin will sing, "As Through The Streets," from "La Boheme," and "Lift Thine Eyes." She will also sing at a joint recital by the pupils of Mr. Schroeder and Romeo Grono and Emil Hermann, at the Odeon, in Cincinnati.

—The March meeting of the Emma Johnson Chapter, Daughters of American Revolution, was held in the club rooms Saturday with large attendance. Following the business session Miss Ranson read a paper on "The Americanism of Washington."

—Miss Laura Lileston read a paper on "The Society of Cincinnati." A painting by Robert Burns Wilson, the Kentucky poet-painter, which the chapter will present to Kentucky Room in Continental Hall, in Washington, D. C., was on exhibition at this meeting, and was greatly admired.

—Interesting letters have been received by Paris people who are spending the days in St. Petersburg, Fla. They write glowingly of the delightful climate of "The Sunshine City," and say that a St. Petersburg daily paper has a standing offer to give away its paper any day the sun doesn't shine, and that it has had to make good on the offer only fifty times in nine years. The city engages a band to give concerts twice daily during the tourist season. Games are provided in the park, and there is swimming, boating and fishing. There are about 40,000 tourists in St. Petersburg this winter.

—The "shut-ins" at the Massie Memorial Hospital, are doing very well, according to a report from the institution yesterday. Dr. C. Bruce Smith is improving. Miss Jennie Whittington has recovered and has gone to the home of her niece, in Frankfort. Mrs. R. H. Blue returned to her home, after a stay of seven weeks in the Hospital. Robert Fuller, who was badly injured by being run over by a motor-truck, last week, is improving.

—Mrs. Rebecca Collier, who has been dangerously ill with pneumonia, has recovered and has returned to her home near Millersburg. Mrs. Jas. Stivers, was admitted to the Hospital yesterday for treatment. Mrs. J. C. Mervinger, who received severe burns from a gas stove at her residence some days ago, has recovered sufficiently to be removed to her home. James Hill, suffering from blood poisoning caused by getting a rusty nail in his foot, is doing nicely and on the road to recovery.

—Disciples of Christ to enter big church drive.

—Members of the Promotional Committee of the Disciples of Christ, in Kentucky, have perfected plans for entry of this State in a national movement to raise a fund of $60,000,000 to carry out the program of the church for adequately equipping and endowing its colleges, enlarging its missionary and benevolent work and strengthening the church organization.

—Kentucky's share is to be $6,500,000 raised in a five-year budget, one-fifth each year. Headquarters of the movement will probably be brought from Lexington, where a drive for Transylvania College, which was begun some time ago, is to be merged in the larger movement conducted in co-operation with the Interchurch World Movement.

PRESIDENT TAKES DRIVE IN AUTO.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—Lured by balmy spring weather, the first of the season, President Wilson went on a motor jaunt about the city Wednesday. It was the first time he had left the White House grounds since he was put to bed "a very sick man" five months ago today on his return from his interrupted Western speaking tour.

The President told Mrs. Wilson and Rear Admiral Cary T. Grayson, who accompanied him, that he felt as though he had been away from Washington a long time.

For more than an hour the President drove along the speedway and through the city streets and the Capitol grounds, where he waved a friendly greeting to Senator Borah of Idaho, one of the chief opponents to the peace treaty. The Senator returned the salutation.

Passing the vicinity of a market house, the President, who delights always in reading signs when he is motoring, saw a large sign quoting pork at 35 cents a pound. Although he has given much serious consideration to the high cost of living, the President remarked to Mrs. Wilson, "That brings it home to you when you see a big sign like that."

The President was recognized by many persons and returned their greetings as the White House limousine rolled along at an easy gait, escorted by another machine carrying the secret service men.

"Delighted and much benefitted by his trip," was the way Dr. Grayson characterized the President's attitude when he returned to the White House.

DISCIPLES LAUNCH DRIVE FOR $6,500,000.

LOUISVILLE, KY., March 8.—Launching a $6,500,000 campaign for missions and education as Kentucky's share in the national campaign for $60,000,000, the Disciples of Christ are starting on the "most far-reaching program in their history," according to members of the Promotional Committee for Kentucky, who met Thursday at Hotel Henry Watterson with members of the national committee.

This campaign, which will last for five years, will absorb the campaign carried on by Transylvania College. Its plans will be worked out in co-operation with the interchurch World Movement.

In the distribution of funds Transylvania College and the College of the Bible expect to receive $2,575,000 from the five-year total. The budget also allots $150,000 to Hamilton College and $175,000 to Kentucky Female Orphan Home.

"This forward movement includes evangelism, life enlistment, spiritual resources and stewardship in addition to the campaign for money," said R. H. Crossfield, president of Transylvania College, Lexington, Thursday night. "It is part of a far-reaching national programme for strengthening the church, for equipping and endowing the colleges and for enlarging missionary and benevolent work."

The Promotional Committee for Kentucky consists of J. H. MacNeill, Winchester; H. W. Elliott, Sulphur; Mrs. Louise Loos Campbell, Lexington; Linn D. Cartwright, Louisville; Homer Carpenter, Richmond; J. S. Hilton, Louisville, and Mr. Crossfield.

The following representatives of the National Promotional Committee attended the meeting: Stephen J. Corey, Cincinnati; Mrs. Anna A. Atwater, Indianapolis, and Joseph C. Todd, Bloomington, Ind.

"SYRUP OF FIGS" IS LAXATIVE FOR CHILD

Look At Tongue! Remove Poisons From Stomach, Liver and Bowels

Accept "California" Syrup of Figs only—look for the name California on the package, then you are sure your child is having the best and most harmless laxative or physic for the little stomach, liver and bowels. Children love its delicious fruit taste. Full directions for child's dose on each bottle. Give it without fear.

Mother! You must say "California."

Surely a Great Man.
Henry had just started to school and was filled with the patriotic spirit of the times, as well as kindergarten wisdom. "Was Francis Scott Key a great man?" he asked one day of the folks at home. "I think he was, why?" "Cause I think a fellow that writes a song what everyone has to stand up to, must be a great man."

Richmond Man Says He Should Have Been In Bed—Tanlac Soon Restored Him

"Yes, sir, I am so thankful for what Tanlac has done for me I wish I could tell everybody about it," recently said J. S. Traylor, 1416 Ashland street, Richmond, Va., a machinist who works for the Virginia Railway and Power Company.

"For the past year," Mr. Traylor continued, "I had suffered indigestion so bad I could not eat anything without being in misery afterwards. I had no appetite and the little I did manage to eat soured and gas would form on my stomach, causing terrible griping pains and such fearful spells of palpitation I became alarmed for fear I had heart trouble. I could hardly breathe at times and when these spells came on me I just had to stop and sit down. I often became nauseated and would get so weak I could hardly stand up. I also had a severe pain in my back all the time and it was agony for me to stoop over and straighten up again, and at times my head would swim so I had to sit down to keep from falling. I had rheumatism in both feet so bad that in the morning I could hardly bear to put my feet on the floor, and they pained me so I could scarcely walk. I was so badly run down I felt miserable all the time and many a day I had to drag one foot after the other when I ought to have been in bed."

"I saw Tanlac recommended by several people I knew to be reliable, so I decided to try it. Before I had finished my first bottle my improvement was so great a friend asked me what I was doing. I look so well, and when I said it was Tanlac he said, 'Well, you had better stick to Tanlac, for you certainly look like a different person.' I have a fine appetite and can eat anything I want and everything agrees with me perfectly. I am never troubled with gas or pains in my stomach, and I am rid of the swimming in the head. The pains in my back and the rheumatism have all gone and I never have a trouble of any kind. I feel stronger than I have in a long while and can work all day long without even sitting down to rest. If any one wants to know any more about the benefits I have received from Tanlac let them write me and I will gladly answer any question they may ask."

THREATENED TO KILL KING OF SPAIN.

PARIS, FRANCE, March 8.—Thursday's session of the trial of former Premier Joseph Caillaux before the Senate sitting as a high court, on the charge of having had treasonable dealings with the enemy, brought out the fact that an alleged threat by M. Caillaux against the life of King Alfonso of Spain at the time the landing of German troops at Agadir, Morocco, led to grave international complications in 1911.

William Martin, former chief of protocol at the foreign office, related a conversation he had with King Alfonso January 30, 1912.

The King, according to M. Martin, declared that at the time of the Agadir incident M. Caillaux sent an emissary to him threatening him with death.

M. Martin testified that King Alfonso said he was not afraid of M. Caillaux's threat, but had made a note of it and left a copy in a vault so that if anything happened the truth would be known.

M. Caillaux denied that there was any truth in the story, and asked the court to allow him to produce counter-claims at a private sitting of the court.

WHY COLDS ARE DANGEROUS.

You are often told to "beware of a cold" but why? We will tell you: Every cold weakens the lungs, lowers the vitality and paves the way for the more serious diseases. People who contract pneumonia first take cold. The longer a cold hangs on, the greater the danger, especially from the germ diseases, as a cold prepares the system for the reception and development of the germs of consumption, diphtheria, scarlet fever and whooping cough. The quicker you get rid of your cold, the less the danger of contracting one of these diseases. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a great reputation as a cure for colds and can be depended upon. It is pleasant to take.

Beliefs That Center About Pearls.

Many superstitious beliefs prevail in the East concerning pearls, those gems of the ocean depths. For instance, it is a common practice (only among the rich, needless to say) to powder a pearl and swallow it either as a tonic for failing vigor or to ward off impending disease or ill luck; or a maiden may rub her eyes with a pearl and there, after, by merely gazing at a man, she may make him her slave!

Christian Era.

The Christian era was not adopted as a means of reckoning time until several centuries after Christ's time. An error was made in the reckoning then and it is now agreed that the time assigned for the birth of Christ was at least four years out of the way; that is, according to the accepted reckoning, Jesus was born in the year 4 B. C.

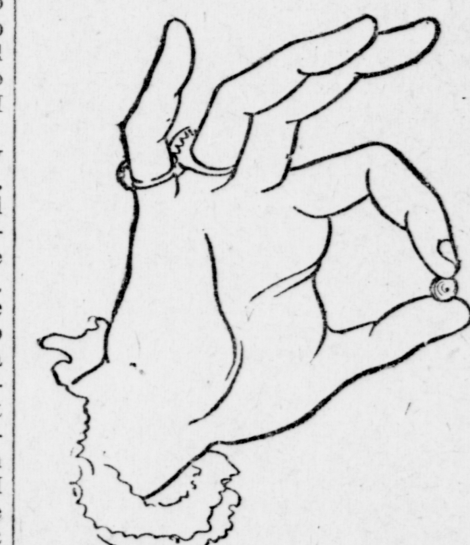

MODEL OF BRIDGE BEING MADE

A clay model of the Memorial Bridge proposed by the Franklin County War Mothers to be erected across the Kentucky River, at Frankfort, is being made by Architect L. L. Oberworth, and will be on exhibition shortly. A painting of the bridge, now being shown in the window of the Capital Drug Company, in Frankfort, was presented to the War Mothers' Association by Mr. Oberworth, who had two sons in the service during the war.

As soon as the clay model of the structure is completed it will be on exhibition, and the picture will be removed to the New Capitol, where it can be viewed by members of the General Assembly, among whom the Franklin county organization now is working in the interest of a bill to secure an appropriation for the erection of this bridge. It is expected that the bridge will be a memorial for the entire State, the War Mothers believing that such a testimonial would be a more impressive tribute than a monument in the State cemetery, and in trying to secure the structure, they have the co-operation of every organization in the city.

WITH FINGERS! CORNS LIFT OUT

Freezone is magic! Corns and calluses lift right off—Doesn't hurt a bit

A few cents buys a tiny bottle of the magic Freezone at any drug store. Apply a few drops of Freezone upon a tender, aching corn or a callus. Instantly that troublesome corn or callus stops hurting, then shortly you lift it out, root and all, without any pain, soreness or irritation. These little bottles of Freezone contain just enough to rid the feet of every hard corn, soft corn, corn between the toes and the calluses on bottom of feet. So easy! So simple. Why wait? No humbug!

Some Evidence of Crime.
Where victim of a homicide was shot both through the head and body, his ears severed, one eye gouged out, his head and face frightfully mangled, his body dragged 40 yards down a bank, leaving a trail of blood, and there abandoned in the night, court's remark as to importance of case to commonwealth, and to defendant, and that it would certainly appear that some one was guilty of a most heinous crime, was not improper.—Commonwealth vs. Bednorick, Pa., 107 Atl. 666.

MUST SIGN PLEDGE NOT TO MARRY.

NEW YORK, March 8.—Twelve Italian girls, who came to the United States to marry American soldiers, but who have been held at Ellis Island because they could not pass the literacy test, learned Tuesday night that Washington had ruled they may be admitted to the country for 60 days—providing they sign a pledge not to marry during that time.

If Senator William Calder's bill to exempt them from the reading test is passed, they will be free at any time to wed their soldier sweethearts. Even if the bill fails to become a law, there is a chance for the girls, for during the 60 days they may learn to read the required 40 words and return to Ellis Island to demonstrate their accomplishment.

Each soldier must get a friend or relative to furnish a $500 bond to guarantee that his prospective bride will not become a public charge. The bondsman will be required to inform the immigration officials every 15 days where the bride elect may be found, and must sign a pledge to do all in his power to prevent the couple from marrying during the 60-day period.

The news spread so rapidly, and the doughboy Romeos acted so promptly, that it was said at Ellis Island Tuesday night that four or five of the girls probably would gain their freedom Wednesday, despite the fact that some of the men live in distant cities. Every man had expressed his determination to send his "girl" to school, day or night, or both—until she can read.

DOUBLE BEAUTY OF YOUR HAIR

"Danderine" creates mass of thick, gleamy waves

In a few moments you can transform your plain, dull, flat hair. You can have it abundant, soft, glossy and full of life. Just get at any drug or toilet counter a small bottle of "Danderine" for a few cents. Then moisten a soft cloth with the "Danderine" and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. Instantly, yes, immediately, you have doubled the beauty of your hair. It will be a mass, so soft, lustrous and so easy to do up. All dust, dirt and excessive oil is removed.

Let Danderine put more life, color, vigor and brightness in your hair. This stimulating tonic will freshen your scalp, check dandruff and falling hair and help your hair to grow long, thick, strong and beautiful.

1,344 KENTUCKY ARMY DESERTERS UNCAUGHT.

The final report of the Provost Marshal General on the operations of the selective service shows a total of 1,344 outstanding desertions from the army from Kentucky. The total number reported from Kentucky as deserters from the army was 3,861, of whom 551 were accounted for as not deserters while 1,196 were apprehended and their cases were disposed of. This leaves 1,344 outstanding desertions in which cases the deserters have neither been apprehended nor punished.

The total number of desertions out of a total registration of 2,908,576 in the United States was 469,003, of which 151,354 were accounted for as not deserters, while 163,738 were apprehended and their cases disposed of, while there are still 173,911 outstanding cases of desertions.

Says Same About Trutona As Many Others Do—Did Wonders

LOUISVILLE, KY., March 9.—I can say the same thing about Trutona that so many other people are saying—"It has done wonders for me." This frank statement came a few days ago from Mrs. Blanche Meddis, well known in her neighborhood, who lives at 531 East Madison street.

Mrs. Meddis, like scores of other Louisville people decided to try Trutona because of the unstinted praise that the Perfect Tonic was receiving from others. She is now enthused and deeply grateful over her relief.

"I used to walk around feeling as though I was going to fall over," she said. I didn't care much about eating and the little food I did eat wasn't digested properly. I had vomiting spells at times and very often experienced headaches. I was awfully nervous, too.

"I had read about the good work Trutona had been doing for others and realizing that my condition needed immediate attention, I decided to take this medicine. It has done wonders for me just what others say it has done for them. I wouldn't be without a bottle of Trutona in the house."

Trutona is being introduced and explained in Paris at G. S. Varden & Son's drug store.

HOLLAND AGAIN REFUSE TO SURRENDER KAISER.

The Hague, March 8.—The Dutch government to-day for the second time refused to deliver the former German Emperor to the Allies for trial.

The Hague, March 8.—Holland's answer to the Second Allied note relative to the extradition or internment of former Kaiser William, of Germany, probably will be handed Premier Lloyd George by the Dutch minister in London this week.

Intimations have been given that the Netherlands government will express its willingness to guard the erstwhile monarch and prevent anything that might threaten the peace of Europe.

Night and day shifts are working on the Kaiser's new residence at Doorn, and it is reported he will move there from Amerongen on May 12. A high fence about the house at Doorn is now near completion, the authorities having waived opposition to the work.

While unprotected by high walls or a moat the Doorn estate is now in reality a 200-acre farm that can be easily guarded and within which the Dutch government expects William of Hohenzollern to spend the rest of his days.

IS THIS YOUR EXPERIENCE?

Many Paris People Are Afflicted With Annoying Kidney Ills.

Are you bothered with too frequent action of the kidneys? Are the secretions highly colored—do they contain sediment—burn and scald in voiding? These are all signs of kidney sickness and should not be neglected. Paris people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches and your kidneys are weak you will find no better recommended remedy.

Charles Stewart, tinsmith, Lilleson avenue, Paris, says: "I have had three or four attacks of lumbago in the past few years, the first being the worst. There was a constant, dull ache in my back all the time and often sharp, cutting pains darted through it. It sometimes seemed as though I could hardly endure the misery. I tried different remedies with no good results. I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills and procured them from the Ardery Drug Co. The first box helped me and I continued taking them until cured. Attacks since then have always been slight. Doan's Kidney Pills have never failed to relieve me."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Stewart had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

MOONSHINE STILL IN MONTGOMERY SEIZED.

MT. STERLING, KY., March 8.—Federal Prohibition Officers G. L. Hannen and Neale Guilfoile, assisted by several deputies captured and destroyed one of the largest stills ever located in this section last week, on East Fork of Slate Creek. The moonshiners, Jeff Ballard and his two sons, Bob and Albert, were surprised by the officers.

The still was an underground affair about 25 feet square. It could not be seen 25 feet away. A trap door was well hidden under brush with another entrance which could be used to make a "get away." The still was reported by the officers as being dry as a powder house and one of the best equipped they had ever seen.

The still house and contents which were destroyed by the officers contained the following: 150 gallon copper still, 16 fifty barrel fermenters, 7 thirty gallon fermenters, 50 gallon flake stand, 1,200 gallons beer, 1 pumping keg, 1 stove, 1 two-inch 8 coil worm, 2 chairs, 2 lamps, 1 saw, 1 ax, 1,000 gallons slop, 3 five gallon jugs, 25 cotton bags, 100 pounds shop, 1 still cap.

The men arrested were brought to Mt. Sterling and placed in the county jail to await trial before U. S. Commissioner W. H. Wood.

MARY PICKFORD GRANTED DIVORCE.

RENO, NEV., March 8.—Mary Pickford, motion picture star, won a divorce from Owen Moore Wednesday night at Minden, a small town near Carson City, on grounds of desertion, it became known today.

She has been at the Campbell ranch at Genoa, near by, since February 15.

Miss Pickford was accompanied to the Court room by her mother, Mrs. Smith, and wept freely while testifying.

Moore was not in court, but was represented by an attorney.

Miss Pickford told the Court that Moore had deserted her on several occasions and had only returned in response to her pleas, but that a year ago he left her and has refused to return.

When you get Indigestion

A few tablets of "Pape's Diapepsin" brings relief almost as soon as they reach the stomach.

"Pape's Diapepsin" by neutralizing the acidity of the stomach, instantly relieves the food souring and fermentation which causes the flatulence, fullness, or pain in stomach and intestines.

"Pape's Diapepsin" helps regulate disordered stomachs so favorite foods can be eaten without causing distress. Costs so little at drug stores.

FREE BOOK APPROPRIATION.

FRANKFORT, KY., March 8.—The House voted another $125,000 the year, to come out of the $700,000 budget surplus, in addition to the $150,000 for increasing the pay of jurors, when it passed the Roth Free Textbook Bill Thursday afternoon, 49 to 30, Speaker Bosworth ruling that it is not an appropriation measure.

The bill as amended provides for furnishing books next year to pupils of the first and second grades, the money to come out of the mineral fund, and to add two grades each year until the high school is reached in 1925.

The approximate increase in cost each succeeding year will be 12 per cent.

Ford

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Out of the more than 3,000,000 Ford cars now in use, about sixty percent have been sold to farmers. Probably no other one thing has brought to the farm so much of comfort and profit as has the Ford car. It has enlarged the social life, doubled the facilities for marketing, brought the town next door to the farm, multiplied for the farmer the pleasures of living. A family car without an equal in low cost of operation and maintenance. We solicit your order for one now because the demand is large and continually increasing.

MILLERSBURG

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Arnsperger are spending a few days with his mother at Paris.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Watkins have moved from Carlisle to the rooms in the Farmers Bank, recently completed.

Mr. Maddox and family have moved to the rooms in Ingels flat, vacated by Mr. and Mrs. William Pusnecker.

The Paris Home Telephone Co. is now busy on the lines and will in all probability have the town telephones connected with the exchange in another week.

Mr. J. Clarke Lee was in Lexington, Saturday, under medical treatment. He has been suffering for some time with an infected ear, superinduced by the flu.

Mr. W. G. Sugg sold his home Saturday afternoon at public sale to Mr. D. E. Clarke, for $2,640. Mr. Clarke resold it again the same afternoon to Mr. J. O. Ralls, for $2,790. Mr. Suggs will move to his farm in a few days.

The body of E. S. Murphy, of Simpsonville, who died in the hospital at Hopkinsville, last week, was brought to Millersburg, Friday, and interred in the local cemetery Friday afternoon. Mr. Murphy was a son of Prof. Murphy, who for several years was connected with the old Kentucky Wesleyan College when that institution was located in this city.

THE SICK—Dr. C. B. Smith continues about the same at Massie Hospital, in Paris. Mr. J. P. Redmon, who is ill with scarlet fever, improves slowly. No change for the better in the condition of his little daughter, Marguerite. Mrs. J. P. Redmon and nurse are now ill with scarlet fever. Mr. E. M. Ingles and Mrs. J. W. Slater, who are confined to their homes with the "flu," are able to sit up. Mrs. J. O. Ralls is confined to her home with pneumonia.

See the nice line of samples of Ladies' Wash Goods, Dress Goods, Woolen Goods, Silks and Linens, handled by Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Caldwell. We will be glad to make dates with you at any time at your homes, and show you as large a line of samples as can be found in any dry goods house in Kentucky. Remember merchandise is scarce. The season is passing, and the early buyers will not be disappointed. They represent the Mitchell & Church Co., Inc., the Waisting and Sulting House, Birmingham, N. Y.

The writer is in possession of a program to be given at the Odeon, in Cincinnati, by the pupils of Mr. M. Hans Schroeder in a song recital, assisted by pupils of Mr. Romeo Gorno and Mr. Emile Heilmann, of the College of Music. Miss Virginia Shanklin, of Millersburg will appear on the program in a "As Thru the Streets" (La Boheme), Puccini; (b. "Lift Thine Eyes"), Logan. Miss Shanklin is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Shanklin, and is a graduate of music in the class of 1919, of the M. C. She is a young lady of brilliant prospects, and is quite a musical favorite of all who know her. We regret that our citizens cannot avail themselves of the opportunity of hearing this musical treat.

The body of Mrs. W. C. Wood, who died at her home in Collins, Miss., last Friday, reached Lexington, Sunday morning, and was brought to this city for interment at the funeral home arriving here at one o'clock. The body was accompanied by her son, John Trigg Wood, of Collins, Miss., and her nephew, Ray Sanford. The funeral and burial took place in the Millersburg Cemetery yesterday afternoon at three o'clock. Mrs. Wood was formerly Miss Amelia Trigg, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Trigg, of this place. Her early life was spent in and around Millersburg, where she had a host of friends. She was married when a young girl to Mr. W. C. Wood, they moving to Collins, Miss., shortly afterward, where they have since resided. Mrs. Wood had been in failing health for the past two years.

The Farmers' Bank made the following statement regarding their business at close of business March 1, 1920: Cash and due from banks, $518,954.89; Loans, $611,529.24; Bank Building and Furniture, $9,000.00; Capital, $30,000.00; Surplus, $29,142.77; Deposits, $1,80,371.36; Total, $1,139,514.13. The new bank will be ready for business May 1, 1920.

This is a good report, but the business done by the bank during the first six days in March is even more startling. The clearing business of the bank for these six days averaged in round numbers $190,000 per day, or for the entire week, $1,400,000. This too, in view of the fact, that Millersburg has two banks. Our little city is nestled away between three county seats. The farthest removed of these is Cynthia, at a distance of only twelve miles, while Paris and Carlisle are only eight miles each. Cynthia possesses three banks, Paris four, Carlisle three, and Millersburg two, making twelve banks in all, which is a most brilliant showing for the Farmers' Bank.

When they are installed in their new building with all of its improved methods for business, attractive furniture and conveniences for those doing business for the bank, their business undoubtedly will be greatly increased. The new building when completed will be one of the most convenient and attractive bank buildings in Kentucky. When the building is ready for occupancy it will be thrown open to the public for inspection, and the citizens of Millersburg, and elsewhere, will be given an opportunity of visiting the building, which for the next century to come, will not only serve as a monument to the promoters of the building, Messrs. W. D. McIntyre, President, and S. M. Allen, Cashier, but will also be one of the ornaments of the town.

RELIGIOUS.

It is estimated that the sum of $1,332,000 will be required to keep going for the next year the tremendous work outlined for the Presbyterian Progressive Program. The raising of this money is one of the articles of the program. The Paris Presbyterian church is making plans for raising its quota in full. At a meeting of the Deacons last Friday night Mr. John Woodford, Chairman of the campaign, was directed to choose an Executive Committee to carry on the campaign.

At the conclusion of the business meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the Christian Church, Friday afternoon, a program was given by children, under supervision of Mrs. McClanahan, Superintendent. Six girls gave a playlette, "Waiting For The Doctor." Those taking part were Frances Clarke, Lulu Chappel, Louise Bannister, Elizabeth Douglas, Bettie Mitchell, Helen Chappel, Elizabeth Myall Daniels. After the meeting the children were guests of the Society at Mitchell's.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH.—Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Day and daughter, Miss Lillian Day, and Miss Eleanor Payne, daughter of J. Walter Payne, united with the Paris Christian Church, last Sunday morning. They were baptised Sunday afternoon at four o'clock, and received fellowship into the church at the evening service. Rev. W. E. Ellis preached a most beautiful sermon relative to "What It Means to Be a Christian," which was instructive, elevating and encouraging to all of a Christian faith, and especially so to the new converts.

MATRIMONIAL.

A marriage license was issued Saturday from the County Clerk's office in Lexington to Russell Rose, 22, carpenter, Bourbon county, and Miss Daisy Baker, 21, of Lexington.

MOORE—WILLIAMS

Miss Marian Moore, daughter of Mr. Thomas Moore, formerly of Paris, and Mr. Ben Williams, of Frankfort, were married recently in Jackson. The bride will be pleasantly remembered here, where she spent her girlhood days. She is a granddaughter of the late Capt. and Mrs. James M. Thomas. She has one brother, Rogers Moore, of Lexington, who married Miss Williams, a sister of her husband. Mr. Williams is a well-known young business man of Frankfort, a son of B. J. Williams, formerly County Judge of Franklin county.

GAME COMMISSION OFFICIAL URGES LAW ENFORCEMENT

Mr. J. Quincy Ward, Executive Agent of the State Game and Fish Commission was in Paris, Saturday and Sunday, as a guest of his brother, Mr. J. Miller Ward, and Mrs. Ward, at their country home, near Paris.

Mr. Ward is greatly interested in the task of stocking the woods and streams of Kentucky with fish and game of all varieties, and is devoting to this work a great deal of energy and time in return for which he gets very little in the way of material reward. He delights in it for the love of the sport.

Kentucky, in the opinion of Mr. Ward, needs a strong organization of sportsmen to back up the laws which have been passed for the protection of fish and game. He says Kentucky is splendidly supplied with streams and forests, and should, under proper development, furnish rare sport for the fisherman and the hunter. Deer and wild turkey, if given protection for a few years, will multiply in this State, and all over the Commonwealth there are streams suited for the propagation of the small-mouth black bass, "inch for inch, the gamiest fish that swims." It is likely that an effort will be made this year to organize a State Game and Fish Association with branches in every county, and Mr. Ward wants Bourbon to have one of the very best.

HAS THESE THINGS HAPPENED TO YOU?

Once upon a time a man entered a watchmaker's shop, to have his watch repaired. "When may I have my watch?" asked the man. "In about six weeks," answered the watchmaker. "Why the delay?" the man inquired. "There is a great scarcity of mainspring repairs," said the watchmaker.

And the man fared forth, and slipped and fell upon the pavement, owing to the scarcity of shovels, was icy.

The man tried to telephone to the automobile service station, to get his car, which had been promised to him that afternoon, but the foreman told him that there was a shortage of mechanics and that he could not have his car for two weeks. It took the man twenty minutes to get the service station by telephone, owing to the shortage of telephone operators.

"Well," said the man, "the subway is crowded; the streets are replete with humanity; the restaurants brim with human beings. Surely the population is not dwindling."

And he went to his office and opened his mail. And it came to him, in a vision, for he said, "I know what all these ex-watchmakers, ex-snow shovellers, ex-mechanics, ex-telephone operators are doing. They are in the publicity, or, as it used to be called, press agent, business."

DEATHS.

HUGHES.

Hiram Hughes, aged about fifty, a farmer residing near Ruddles Mills, died Friday afternoon about four o'clock, at the Massie Memorial Hospital, following an illness and operation for an internal abscess. The body was removed to the Geo. W. Davis undertaking establishment, where it was prepared for burial. The funeral was held Sunday afternoon at Carlisle, the funeral cortege leaving Paris in automobiles. Mr. Hughes is survived by one brother, who resides near Carlisle.

STEPHENS.

J. Q. Stephens, aged ninety, one of the oldest and most prominent business men of Mt. Sterling, died at his home in that city Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock. Mr. Stephens was one of a family of twenty-seven children, all born and reared in Montgomery county. He held a number of public offices of trust in the city of Mt. Sterling, and it was his boast that he had never "scratched" a ticket. He is survived by one daughter and three sons. His granddaughter, Miss Stella Stephens, is a member of the Paris High School faculty.

SMART.

Mrs. Maude Smart, aged twenty-nine, wife of H. K. Smart, died at four o'clock yesterday morning at her home in Rosedale Addition, after a long illness due to abscess of the lung. Mrs. Smart was a daughter of George and Jennie Ross Miller, of Nicholas county.

Mrs. Smart is survived by her husband and five children, her father and mother, three sisters, Mrs. Mary Berryman, of Paris, Mrs. Mayme McVey, and Mrs. Ethel Miller, of Nicholas county, and one brother, William Miller, of Nicholas county.

The funeral will be held from the family residence with services conducted at the grave in the Paris Cemetery at two o'clock tomorrow afternoon by Rev. W. E. Ellis, pastor of the Paris Christian church.

THE SCHOOL TEACHER IS ENTITLED TO A LIVING.

The lack of trained teachers has been a matter of common lamentation for years. We have lamented, but we have done little or nothing to get trained teachers, and now we are indulging in even deeper lamentation over the lack of any teacher at all.

There is no secret to why teachers of the right sort are almost impossible to get in the rural districts, or why teachers of any kind are becoming scarcer and scarcer. Everyone knows that it is because teachers are not paid a living wage.

East Tennessee teachers held a meeting recently and decided that no college graduate ought to teach for less than $100 a month for the first year; no normal school graduate for less than $80 a month; no high school graduate for less than $60 a month, and that these salaries ought steadily to be increased with the increased experience of the teachers. These figures are not a bit too high. Considering what unskilled laborers of many kinds are getting, and what it costs even to live these days, they are low.

One thing is certain—teachers must be better paid, or there will soon be no teachers to pay. We may just as well make up our minds to pay them more.

HUMORIST'S DESCRIPTION OF OIL WELL LAUGHABLE.

George Fitch, the humorist, has expressed his opinion of oil wells. George's description of an oil well reads like some of his millionaire dollar plays. Here is the humorist's description of a well:

"An oil well is a hole in the ground about a quarter of a mile deep, into which a man may put a small fortune or out of which he may take a big one. And he never knows until the hole is finished."

"Nothing is as noncommittal as an oil well that isn't finished. A sphinx is garrulous beside it. But when it is finished it either goes on being quieter than ever, or it begins spouting automobiles, trips to Europe and largely nobby mansions in New York."

HERBERT HOOVER INVITED TO ADDRESS LEGISLATURE.

Senator George Hon. of Winchester, introduced a resolution in the Senate inviting Herbert Hoover to address the General Assembly. Senator Brock, Republican leader, opposed the resolution on the ground that there was not sufficient time, but it was adopted after a debate with only Brock's vote against it.

THE COLORED BROTHER'S PERSIFLAGE IN COMEDY.

A little comedy now and then is relished by the wisest of men. A little nonsense often tends to dispel the gloom of the work-a-day world. In this connection it may be remarked that the average "coon" is as full of wit as an egg is of meat, and often gets off some funny saying without appearing to know or feel that they are in the funny class.

THE NEWS man was passing the door of a large mercantile establishment on Main street the other day, when he noticed two colored employees of the store engaged in an animated conversation on the sidewalk. Of course, this was early in the morning, at the daily dust-raising time. It seems that one of the men was a little bit lax in his duties, and the other, who appeared to be a major-domo of the underservant variety, was taking him to task about it. The "head man" has secured the job for the erring one, and was greatly peeved.

"Why don't you do better work?" Look at me. I sweep off a nasty pavement. You ain't got no "pre-clashun ner authin". Look at you when you come here and I got you dis job. You wuz so ragged dat you had ter carry yer money in yer mouf!"

"Jess keep on," replied the erring one, rolling his eyes. "Jess keep on. That's all I axes you. I'll fix you so jest one white collar will last you from now on. The last nigger I hit ain't never cum back yit. He jest can't git the bump on his head thru that store doah!"

THE NEWS man looked back after a time and the trouble seemed to have been averted, as there was no sign of hostilities.

"I don't draw any more," said the corkscrew. "I seem to have lost my pull."

In Payta, Peru, the interval between two showers of rain is about seven years.

THINGS TO WORRY ABOUT

Kentuckians in Washington are quoted in a daily paper of recent date as "manifesting great surprise when the Census Bureau's report showed Lexington's population as being only 41,534." What's worrying most people is to figure out where the "surprise" part comes in. That ungodly city has been claiming all along that the census would show a population of 50,000. But the Government's unbiased workers found things different there. As one prominent Lexington man once remarked, "The best thing about Lexington is the fact that there's so many different ways of getting out of the place in a hurry!"

THE LAND OF THE FREE?

Now that a laborer has been arched with the lunch he was eating at the dinner hour, we begin to get an inkling of what a joke prohibition is. Beer has been the poor man's beverage for a thousand years. The Norsemen conquered new worlds on beer and cheese. The Tartars brewed it 500 years B. C. The Britons who settled this country were raised on beer. And for 300 years beer has been part of our American life. And now because a few fanatics control Congress, the use of beer is not only forbidden, but is made a felony. No matter how decent and law-abiding a citizen may be, if he is found taking a drink of beer he is berded with the thug, the degenerate and the murderer. And he is taxed heavily that 40,000 spies may spend millions of dollars prying into his affairs for fear that he might take a glass of beer. It seems a joke, but the Holy Joes who own Congress right now know that the Great American Jelly Fish will stand for anything. And you are one of the Jelly Fish.

At the time of its birth the giraffe measures six feet from its hoof to the top of its head.

ROOMS RESERVED FOR STATE DELEGATES TO CONVENTION

Rooms for the Kentucky delegates to the Democratic National Convention at San Francisco have already been reserved for them by General W. B. Haldeman, Democratic National Committeeman. These reservations have been made at St. Francis, the leading hotel of the convention city. In addition to reserving the delegates' rooms, Gen. Haldeman has obtained a large assembly room in the same hotel for delegation meetings during the convention. This room he will present, free of charge, for the delegates' use with his compliments.

RIGHT SORT OF AMBITION.

The height of the ambition of some people in these United States is to be the proud possessor of a dangerous prosperity seldom if ever adorned their persons with a "billed shirt." Silk shirts even when they were selling at normal prices were never economical. Haberdashers have always prominently displayed the sign, "silk goods not guaranteed." But now the quality is no better and the prices are outrageously high. The man who wants the dozen silk shirts now would do better were he to invest $32.49 in a Treasury Savings Certificate and five years hence draw down one hundred dollars in gold. By that time he would not spend very much of his salary on so flimsy and perishable a garment as a silk shirt.
